Barnardsville Telephone Company's Demonstration of Compliance with Applicable Service Quality Standards and Consumer Protection Rules

In establishing this certification in its 2005 ETC Order,¹ the FCC found that an ETC must make “a specific commitment to objective measures to protect consumers.”² The FCC found that for wireless ETCs, compliance with CTIA’s Consumer Code for Wireless Service would satisfy this requirement and that the sufficiency of other commitments would be considered on a case-by-case basis.³ In this context, the FCC stated, “to the extent a wireline or wireless ETC applicant is subject to consumer protection obligations under state law, compliance with such laws may meet our requirement.”⁴

Barnardsville Telephone Company (“Company”) hereby certifies that it is in compliance with applicable service quality standards and consumer protection obligations under both federal and North Carolina state law. The Company is subject to, and compliant with, consumer protection obligations for broadband services under federal law. The Company complies with all requirements set forth in the 2015 Open Internet Order as they become effective.

¹ Federal-State Joint Board on Universal Service, CC Docket No. 96-45, Report and Order, FCC 05-46 (rel. Mar. 17, 2005) (“2005 ETC Order”).

² Id. at para. 28.

³ Id. The FCC noted that under the CTIA Consumer Code, wireless carriers agree to: “(1) disclose rates and terms of service to customers; (2) make available maps showing where service is generally available; (3) provide contract terms to customers and confirm changes in service; (4) allow a trial period for new service; (5) provide specific disclosures in advertising; (6) separately identify carrier charges from taxes on billing statements; (7) provide customers the right to terminate service for changes to contract terms; (8) provide ready access to customer service; (9) promptly respond to consumer inquiries and complaints received from government agencies; and (10) abide by policies for protection of consumer privacy.” Id. at n. 71.

⁴ Id. at n. 72.

Barnardsville Telephone Company's Demonstration of Ability to Function in Emergency Situations

Barnardsville Telephone Company ("Company") hereby certifies that it is able to function in emergency situations as set forth in 47 C.F.R. § 54.202(a)(2).¹ The Company's voice and broadband network is designed to remain functional in emergency situations without an external power source, is able to reroute traffic around damaged facilities, and is capable of managing traffic spikes resulting from emergency situations. The Company can change call routing translations as needed to reroute traffic around damaged facilities. Changing call routing translations will allow the Company to manage traffic spikes throughout its network, as emergency situations require.

Specifically, each central office building is supplied with standby generators and battery back-up that enable the central office to keep running until power is restored so long as fuel is available, or until system changes are made to reroute traffic. The Company has battery backup at all office locations and in its electronic equipment sites. Length of run time is determined by the equipment serving the area and the number of customers working out of the equipment. Generators are installed at all Central Office locations. The will continue to run as long as the Company has access to fuel. The Company complies with the FCC's backup power requirements, effective October 16, 2016.
